1.2. Summary of the Action

Yemen faces the prospect of continued conflict and a growing number of adverse humanitarian, institutional, social, and economic effects. In this challenging environment, playing a humanitarian role is not enough. The lack of complementarity between the emergency response projects and development efforts may also serve to hamper development.

⁶ The internal markers have been created to report on the implementation of the Commission's own policy priorities in areas where no DAC reporting tool is available. For the sake of consistency and comparability, the methodology is equivalent to the DAC markers, with three possible positions (main target, significant target, not targeted)

⁷ Methodology for additional tagging providing granularity on internal markers is under development.
