1.2. SUMMARY OF THE ACTION

On 1 February 2021, the Myanmar military took control of the government, and declared a nationwide State of Emergency. This coup d'état interrupted the democratic transition in Myanmar and stalled the peace process. Protests and demonstrations, including a Civil Disobedience Movement (CDM), spread quickly across states and regions paralysing many sectors of the economy leading to the breakdown of a large part of Government functions and the provision of basic services. The initial political crisis is increasingly leading to a significant socio-economic deterioration, fast growing humanitarian needs across the country and violations of human rights. Since the military

⁶ The internal markers have been created to report on the implementation of the Commission's own policy priorities in areas where no DAC reporting tool is available. For the sake of consistency and comparability, the methodology is equivalent to the DAC markers, with three possible positions (main target, significant target, not targeted)

⁷ Methodology for additional tagging providing granularity on internal markers is under development.
