1.2 Summary of the Action

The Education and Youth Empowerment in North-Western Nigeria is a basic and vocational education programme aimed at supporting the Nigerian government in ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and skills development, especially for girls in rural, underserved and nomadic communities in the North-West. This project will contribute to the Global Gateway commitments to support the provision of, and access to modern, inclusive education by investing in quality education and training for youth. It will consist of the following three key objectives: (i) strengthening the education sector planning and policy implementation to improve education service delivery, (ii) increasing access to inclusive and safe learning environments and improving the quality of teaching and learning for all girls and boys and (iii) providing vocational education as well as critical skills to the youth and promoting behavioural change campaigns to challenge harmful social norms and empower girls. This project will work with the
