1.2 Summary of the Action

Half of Sudan's population remains without access to appropriate primary health care services. Maternal and child health indicators are extremely poor. In addition, in a context of drought, poor harvest and dire economic crisis, food insecurity is rising. Malnutrition among children is widespread. 38% of children under five are stunted and one in six children is acutely malnourished (wasting)¹. This Action is part of the overall strategy of the EU in Sudan for 2022 focussed on support to basic services to the population. With its emphasis on nutrition the Action
