1.2 Summary of the Action

Ten years after independence (2011) of South Sudan, the situation in the country remains structurally fragile. Protracted conflicts, climate-related shocks, inadequate public finance management, unemployment, and limited government capacities and responsiveness have eroded livelihoods and coping strategies in South Sudan. The objective of this action is to strengthen the health system and service delivery support in South Sudan, particularly for women and children. The EU will continue its support to ensure access to basic services for people living in the most vulnerable situations across South Sudan. The intervention will prioritise three levels of support, as per the outcomes described below. Firstly, the action will focus on maintaining and/ or increasing access to basic life-saving health services (particularly for women, children and vulnerable groups). Secondly, the action will support health system strengthening especially through the Boma Health Initiative, access to medicines, and increased use and capacities of the health information system. Finally, the action will also address public finance management, in order to
