1.2 Summary of the action

The EU and Viet Nam have a strong partnership, building on various bilateral agreements, notably the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement (PCA) and the Free Trade Agreement (EVFTA). Since the entry into force of the EVFTA, bilateral trade between the EU and Viet Nam has grown significantly. To date, Viet Nam is the EU's biggest trading partner in the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and the EU is one of the biggest foreign investors in Viet Nam.

In the context of sustainable socio-economic development, the EU and Viet Nam share a common interest in the green and circular transition. As a lead global player in achieving net-zero by 2050, the EU has put in place a set of strategies and policies to support this transition process, which also impacts economic actors in partner countries including Viet Nam. The policy reforms under the EU-Viet Nam Free Trade Agreement (EVFTA) and the EU Green Deal in particular require the parties to fulfil increasing social and environmental standards, for which the regulator and the business sector in Viet Nam will need to demonstrate more progress. Supporting Viet Nam to develop a responsible, circular economy including from a gender equality and disability-inclusion perspectives,
