Advent

Key to a fulfilling life. Do a little more than you're-paid to do. Give a little more than you have to; Try a little harder than you want to; Aim a little higher than you think possible. Art Linkletter

Today we begin Advent. This is the period when we prepare to celebrate the coming of the Christ among us two millennia ago, but we also believe that he is coming among us now and so we have to be prepared to receive him, and we know that he will come again at the end of time and we have to prepare the world for his coming. Everything we do as Christians is related to these three comings. So let us reflect on how it is because he first came that we are here at the Eucharist today; gathered now we ask pardon of our sins that we might be prepared for his second coming in this Eucharist; and as a community let us pray that we will be ready to stand before him when he comes again in Glory.

Lord, we thank you for the people who have waited for us – parents, grandparents, uncles and aunts; the church community; friends.

When everyone else had given up on us and gone to sleep, they were the doorkeepers.

As we hesitantly made our way home, wondering if we would be let in, they were awake and welcomed us back.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY.

Let us look to Jesus today and say to Him "Remember me, Lord, now that you are in your kingdom!" May the wisdom of God help us to know how to welcome and accept those who think and act differently from us. How much openness is needed to welcome people who feel alone and confused as they search for a meaning in life. The most holy name of God can never be invoked to justify hatred and violence against other human beings.

PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS VOCATION AWARENESS. For the next one week, please pray: Fr. Michael Mahoney; Fr. Maurizio Maifredi, cs; Fr. Rodolfo Manaloto, osa; Fr. Randal Morrisseau; Fr.+ Milton McWatch; Fr.Thomas Mulamangalam; Fr. James Panikulam
