

Strathspey Crown to Acquire Ophthalmic Distributor in Spain and Portugal, IMEX

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., September 8th, 2015, - Strathspey Crown Holdings LLC, a growth equity firm specializing in lifestyle healthcare, and IMEX Clinic S.L., a leading provider of specialty medical equipment and consumables in Spain and Portugal, announced today that they have entered into a definitive agreement for Strathspey Crown to acquire all outstanding shares of IMEX and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliated companies for an undisclosed sum. The consummation of the acquisition will be conditioned on the satisfactory completion of certain closing conditions.

"IMEX has demonstrated a strong commitment to partnering with leading physician specialists to improve patient outcomes in line with our 'Of Doctors, for Patients' vision," said Robert E. Grant, Chairman of Strathspey Crown. "This transaction will further expand our global reach and we look forward to partnering closely with IMEX and physician specialists across Spain and Portugal to enhance patient experiences and outcomes."

"Twenty years ago we founded IMEX on our commitment to being a trusted partner to Spain and Portugal's leading physicians with a strong history in ophthalmology, which is why it is important for us to select a partner whose values and customer centricity aligns with ours," said Jose Maria Gimeno, Francisco Catalan and Francisco Sanchis, founders and co-CEOs of IMEX. "We truly believe that together we will be able to continue to offer innovative solutions and best-in-class service to our physicians and their patients."
