Policies

Tuition is NON-REFUNDABLE.

The contract is for the full year September through May. Late registrations are accepted if there is space in a class.

In case of withdrawal before the 2nd installment, there is a $50 withdrawal fee, as we often turn away students to keep the class size small for more individual attention.

Payments can be made in 3 installments (Sep. 1st, Dec. 1st, Mar. 1st) or in full. The first installment should be paid at the time of registration. A $35 registration fee without tuition will not guarantee your place in a desired class.

A monthly payment plan is available for students taking over 3 classes a week or larger than $1,000 tuition.

Students may take make-ups only during the session for which they are currently registered. Make-ups cannot be carried over to future sessions.

Limited scholarships are available. A scholarship audition appointment must be made with the Director Mr. Catbas.

Students who do not pay the 2nd installment (Dec. 1st) cannot participate in The Nutcracker, as they are technically no longer students at the school.

Non-refundable Registration Fees: $35 before September 1st, $50 after September 1st, $15 for 2nd family member.

Performance fee: $100 for The Nutcracker, and Costume fee: $100 for Spring Performance.

A $15 Late Fee per week will be assessed for payments made after the due dates. The Return Check Fee is $30.

Discounts: 5% Payment in Full, 10% Family Discount, 5% for second family member. Apply discount to TUITION only, NOT to the registration fee. Payment in full discount applies only to the full year, not the half year for Baby Ballerinas.

Placement: All students in the pre-professional division must take a placement class, and must be enrolled in at least the minimum required classes for their respective level. Students who exhibit poor attendance will be moved to a lower level. Students may be expelled who do not pay their tuition; who have a large number of unexcused absences or who are regularly tardy to class; who behave disrespectfully or unacceptably.

The Dress rehearsals are closed to both public and parents. No photography or no videography is allowed during performances without written permission to prevent copyright infringement. There is a $2,500 fine for violators.

What the Critics Say:

"There is a ballet company in Baltimore again! This performance's soloists were of professional caliber and approached the Fokine ideal - especially Catbas. His assets included a passionately stretched line, buoyant leaps and plush landings. The corps...was cleanly trained and apt stylistically."

Renowned Dance Critic George Jackson

"Baltimore Ballet's 10 Year Anniversary Gala...an inspiring evening of dance, rewarded with a lengthy and well-deserved standing ovation. Cem and Elysabeth Catbas assembled a wonderfully diverse cast, reflecting the scope of any ballet company. How fitting to show this journey of the artist in concert with the journey of this company."

Dance Critic and Blogger Heather Desaulniers

About Baltimore Ballet

Welcome to Baltimore Ballet's 21st season! Baltimore Ballet was founded in June of 2000 by Cem Catbas and Elysabeth Muscat.

Catbas, originally from Istanbul, is a professional dancer with a BFA in Dance with honors from the Istanbul University State Conservatory where he studied with Russian teachers. He began his career as a soloist with the Istanbul State Opera and Ballet under the direction of Cecchetti Master Richard Glasstone.

He then became a Soloist in Germany at the Theater der Stadt Koblenz, where he met Elysabeth Muscat, who was a principal singer in the Opera Company. Muscat has a BS in Psychology from Tulane University and a Masters of Music in Voice from the Mannes College of Music, and sang leading roles in major European Opera Houses.

After spending three years in Koblenz, Cem and Elysabeth moved to Pittsburgh where Cem danced with the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre, and Elysabeth began her teaching career. (At the time, besides managing Baltimore Ballet, she was also the Chair of the Peabody Preparatory Voice Department.)

In June of 2000 they moved to Baltimore and took over a small, existing studio in Mt. Washington.

The school quickly grew in leaps and bounds when word of mouth spread about the excellent quality of teaching and the professional performances being offered.

They quickly renamed the school Baltimore Ballet, and created the Baltimore Ballet Company, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) entity. The school outgrew the old location and relocated in 2005 to the current location on York Road in Cockeysville.

Performance Opportunities

Baltimore Ballet has a Professional Company with 6 resident professional dancers. The Professional Company produces 4 productions annually and also engages in numerous outreach performances and activities.

Students of Baltimore Ballet School participate in the annual performances of “The Nutcracker” and a spring recital each May. Select students can also participate in various outreach performances with Baltimore Ballet Company.

Ballet is a performance art, therefore having the opportunity to perform on stage in a professional production is an important aspect of each student’s dance education and experience.

Pre-Professional Ballet Classes

Class Attire: Each level has its own leotard color uniform with Baltimore Ballet Logo; ballet pink seamless tights, ballet slippers, hair in a neat bun, no jewelry in class, no t-shirts, no shorts, or sweats.

Pre-professional classes based on the Russian Vaganova style. The first levels emphasizes proper placement, posture, turnout, strengthening the feet, balance, and flexibility. As students develop and progress into higher levels, the technical difficulty of the exercises increases to include center Adagio, Petit-allegro, turns, and Grand-allegro. Students may begin Pointe work with the permission of the Artistic Director Mr. Catbas during Level 3. At the highest level, students combine all of the technical aspects with artistry to be a more complete dancer.

Level 1: (Twice weekly recommended) Light blue camisole leotard. Minimum age is 7 years old with one year previous training, or 8 - 10 year old beginners.

Level 2: (Twice weekly minimum) Red camisole leotard. Ages 8 - 11 with two years previous training.

Level 3: (Twice weekly minimum) Royal blue camisole leotard, pink canvas ballet slippers with ribbons. Ages 9 - 12 with three years previous training.

Beginner Pointe: (Only with permission from the Director Mr. Catbas) When enrolled in 3 weekly Ballet Technique classes.

Level 4: (Three times weekly minimum) Purple camisole leotard, pink canvas ballet slippers with ribbons. Ages 10 - 16 with four years previous training.

Level 4 Pointe: Only with permission from the Director Mr. Catbas in conjunction with weekly Ballet classes.

Level 5: (Four times weekly minimum) Black camisole leotard, pink canvas ballet slippers with ribbons. Ages 10 - 16 with five years previous training.

Level 5 Variations: Students learn beginning solo Variations from famous Classical Ballets en Pointe.

Level 5 Pointe: In conjunction with 4 weekly ballet classes.

Level 6: (Only open to students taking unlimited classes) For advanced students 12 and older. Includes Pointe, Pas de Deux, and Variations.

Diploma Program

Advanced students enrolled in Level 6 who wish to receive a Diploma must be enrolled in unlimited classes, and attend dance classes Monday through Saturday, including Ballet, Pointe, Pas de Deux, Repertoire, Jazz, and Modern.

Besides following a curriculum, students will also be cast in performances throughout the season (see the Calendar.) Numerous performance opportunities are essential for the full education and preparation of the dancer for a professional dance career, thus becoming an Artist.

Students are also encouraged to compete in Youth America Grand Prix, a World Class Ballet Competition for young aspiring dancers.

Upon successful completion of four years of study in the Level 6 Pre-professional Program, students will receive a Diploma.
