

2016 Tour de France

⚠ This is an old revision of this page, as edited by BaldBoris (talk | contribs) at 23:18, 17 April 2019 (→Race overview: cleanup). The present address (URL) is a permanent link to this revision, which may differ significantly from the current revision.

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

: topic is a contentious topic.

ed on the page.

ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

itious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
no restrictions placed on the page.
igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
: topic is a contentious topic.

d on the page.
ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

itious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
no restrictions placed on the page.
igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
: topic is a contentious topic.

d on the page.
ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

itious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
no restrictions placed on the page.
igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

: topic is a contentious topic.

ed on the page.

ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

itious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.

no restrictions placed on the page.

igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

: topic is a contentious topic.

ed on the page.

ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

itious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.

no restrictions placed on the page.

igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

: topic is a contentious topic.

ed on the page.

ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

itious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.

no restrictions placed on the page.

igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

t before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

er has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

; topic is a contentious topic.

ed on the page.

ere are no restrictions placed on the page.

entious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.

no restrictions placed on the page.

igate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

edia.)

The 2016 Tour de France was the 103rd edition of the Tour de France, one of cycling's Grand Tours. The 3,529 km (2,193 mi)-long race consisted of 21 stages, starting on 2 July in Mont Saint-Michel, Normandy, and concluding on 24 July with the Champs-Élysées stage in Paris. A total of 198 riders from 22 teams entered the race. The overall general classification was won by Chris Froome of You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia., with the second and third places were taken by Romain Bardet (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) and Nairo Quintana (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), respectively.

Mark Cavendish of You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. won the opening stage to take the general classification leader's yellow jersey. You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. rider Peter Sagan won the second stage to claim yellow and held onto it until the fifth stage when Greg Van Avermaet (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) took the stage and the yellow jersey. Van Avermaet lost ground in the mountainous eighth stage, finishing over 25 minutes behind the stage winner Froome, who took the yellow jersey. Froome retained the yellow jersey through to stage 17 and extended his lead further following a strong performance in the stage 18's mountain time trial. Bardet won the mountainous 19th stage and moved into second place overall and despite crashing in the rain, Froome was able to extend his lead. He then held the lead into the finish in Paris.

The points classification was won by Sagan, who won three stages. You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.'s Rafał Majka won the mountains classification. You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. rider Adam Yates, in fourth place overall, won the young rider classification. The team classification was won by You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. and Sagan was given the award for the most combative rider. Cavendish won the most stages, with four.

Teams

Twenty-two teams participated in the 2016 edition of the Tour de France.^[1] The race was the 18th of the 28 events in the UCI World Tour,^[2] and all of its eighteen UCI WorldTeams were automatically invited, and obliged, to attend the race.^[3] On 2 March 2016, the organiser of the Tour, Amaury Sport Organisation (ASO), announced the four second-tier UCI Professional Continental teams given wildcard invitations: You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia., You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia., You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

The number of riders per nation represented in the 2016 Tour de France:

20+ 10-19 2-9 1

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. and You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia..^[4] The presentation of the teams – where the members of each team's roster are introduced in front of the media and local dignitaries – took place in the town square of Sainte-Mère-Église, Normandy, on 28 June, two days before the opening stage held in the region. Each team arrived in World War II military vehicles, commemorating the Normandy landings.^[5]

Each squad was allowed a maximum of nine riders, therefore the start list contained a total of 198 riders.^[6] Of these, 33 were competing in their first Tour de France.^[7] The total number of riders that finished the race was 174, beating the previous record of 170 set in 2010 Tour.^[8] The riders came from 35 countries; France, Spain, the Netherlands, Belgium, Italy and Germany all had 10 or more riders in the race.^[6] Riders from ten countries won stages during the race; British riders won the largest number of stages, with seven.^[9] The average age of riders in the race was 30 years,^[10] ranging from the 22-year-old Sondre Holst Enger (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) to the 42-year-old Matteo Tosatto (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.^[7] Of the total average ages, You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. was the youngest team and You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. the oldest.^[10]

The teams entering the race were:^[1]

UCI WorldTeams

- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

- You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

- You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.

- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.

- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}})` is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}})` is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

UCI Professional Continental teams

- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}})` is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}})` is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}})` is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.

- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
- You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

Pre-race favourites

In the run up to the 2016 Tour de France, Chris Froome (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) was seen by many as the top pre-race favourite for the general classification. His closest rivals were thought to be Nairo Quintana (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Defending champion Chris Froome of You have called

`{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users * `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. * `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. * `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. * `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices * `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. * `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices * `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. * `{{Contentious topics/page restriction`

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) and Alberto Contador (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.). The other riders considered contenders for the general classification were Richie Porte (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

`talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. * If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous * `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. (pictured at the 2015 Tour) was widely seen as the leading contender for the general classification.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), Thibaut Pinot (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), Fabio Aru (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), Vincenzo Nibali (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), Romain Bardet (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), and Tejay van Garderen (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.).^{[11][12][13][14][15][16]}

Froome, who won both the 2013 and 2015 editions of the race,^[14] had shown his form during the season with overall victories in two stage races, the Herald Sun Tour and the Critérium du Dauphiné,^[11] a race considered to be the warm-up for the Tour.^[17] The runner-up in the 2013 and 2015 Tours,^[14] Quintana, had won three stage races in the lead up to the Tour, the Volta a Catalunya, the Tour de Romandie, and the Route du Sud.^[11] Contador, winner of the 2007 and 2009 Tours, found success in stage races during the season, winning the Tour of the Basque Country and placing second at Paris–Nice and the Volta a Catalunya.^[11]

The sprinters considered favourites for the points classification and wins on the flat or hilly bunch sprint finishes were Peter Sagan (You have called {{Contentious topics}}). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia., Marcel Kittel (You have called {{Contentious topics}}). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page message box (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia., André Greipel (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page message box (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia., Mark Cavendish (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.

- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), Alexander Kristoff (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.), John Degenkolb (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) and Michael Matthews (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.).^{[18][19][20][21][22][23]} Sagan, the world road race champion and winner of the points classification in the four previous Tours, had won the one-day classics, Gent–Wevelgem and the Tour of Flanders, and two stages of the Tour of California during the season before the Tour.^[21] Kittel's 2016 season had been successful up to the Tour as he had amassed a total of nine wins from sprints,^[22] most notably, two stages of the Giro and the Scheldeprijs one-day race. He also won both the general and points classifications of the Dubai Tour.^[20] Greipel's season total of wins so far was eight,^[22] with three Giro stages.^[19] Cavendish's form was not clear as his season was mostly spent training for the omnium track event at the Olympic Games the month following the Tour.^[18] Although Kristoff's total of wins in the season was eight,^[22] they were not in major races.^[21] Degenkolb had spent the majority of his season recovering from an injury and it was thought he could pose a threat.^[20] Matthews only had two wins so far in the season, both at Paris–Nice, including the race's points classification.

Route and stages

On 24 November 2014, ASO announced that for the first time in Tour history the department of Manche would host the 2016 edition's opening stages (known as the Grand Départ),^[24] before further details of the first three stages held in Manche were released on 9 December 2014.^[25] On 15 January 2015, the organisers confirmed that the race would visit Andorra, for the fifth time in history; after the 1964, 1993, 1997 and 2009 editions.^[26] The principality hosted the finish of the ninth stage, the first rest day and start of stage ten.^[27] The entire route was unveiled by race director Christian Prudhomme on 20 October 2015 at the Palais des Congrès in Paris.^[28] The defending champion Chris Froome said after the route was announced that he expected the course to suit him better than the previous year's course. "I think it's going to take a complete cyclist – but the stage that certainly stands out for me is Mont Ventoux", he added.^[28]

Stage seventeen concluded with a summit finish at the Émosson Dam in the Swiss Alps.

The first stage started at the Mont Saint-Michel island monastery and finished north on at Utah Beach. The second stage was held between Saint-Lô and Cherbourg-en-Cotentin. The third stage left Manche in Granville and headed south to the finish in Angers. Stage four took the race further south, between Saumur and Limoges, with the fifth stage crossing the elevated region of Massif Central to the finish at the Le Lioran mountain resort. Stage six headed to Montauban before the entrance to the Pyrenees in stage seven. This mountain range also hosted two further stages: a roller-coaster stage eight and the finish in Andorra in stage nine. The following three stages, 10 to 12, crossed the south of the country eastwards to Mont Ventoux. After an individual time trial, stage 14 took the race northwards through the Rhône Valley, which was followed by a stage that took the race into the Jura Mountains. Stage 16 ended with a finish in Bern, Switzerland. The next four stages took place in and around the Alps, before a long transfer took the Tour to the finish with the Champs-Élysées stage in Paris.^[27]

There were 21 stages in the race, covering a total distance of 3,529 km (2,193 mi), 168.7 km (104.8 mi) longer than the 2015 Tour.^{[27][29]} The longest mass-start was the fourth at 237.5 km (148 mi), and stage 21 was the shortest at 113 km (70 mi).^[27] The race featured a total of 54.5 km (34 mi) in individual time trials and four summit finishes: stage 9, to Andorra-Arcalis (Andorra); stage 12, to Chalet Reynard (Mont Ventoux);^[n 1] stage 17, to Finhaut-Émosson (Switzerland); and stage 19, to Saint Gervais-les-Bains.^{[27][31]} The highest point of the race was the 2,408 m (7,900 ft)-high Port d'Envalira mountain pass on stage ten.^{[32][33]} There were seven hors catégorie (English: beyond category) rated climbs in the race.^[33] There were sixteen new stage start or finish locations. The second rest day took place in Bern after stage 15.^[27]

Stage characteristics and winners^{[27][33][31][34]}

Stage	Date	Course	Distance	Type		Winner
1	2 July	Mont Saint-Michel to Utah Beach (Sainte-Marie-du-Mont)	188 km (117 mi)		Flat stage	 Mark Cavendish (GBR)
2	3 July	Saint-Lô to Cherbourg-en-Cotentin	183 km (114 mi)		Flat stage	 Peter Sagan (SVK)
3	4 July	Granville to Angers	223.5 km (139 mi)		Flat stage	 Mark Cavendish (GBR)
4	5 July	Saumur to Limoges	237.5 km (148 mi)		Flat stage	 Marcel Kittel (GER)
5	6 July	Limoges to Le Lioran	216 km (134 mi)		Medium mountain stage	 Greg Van Avermaet (BEL)
6	7 July	Arpajon-sur-Cère to Montauban	190.5 km (118 mi)		Flat stage	 Mark Cavendish (GBR)
7	8 July	L'Isle-Jourdain to Lac de Payolle	162.5 km (101 mi)		Medium mountain stage	 Steve Cummings (GBR)
8	9 July	Pau to Bagnères-de-Luchon	184 km (114 mi)		High mountain stage	 Chris Froome (GBR)
9	10 July	Vielha Val d'Aran (Spain) to Andorra-Arcalis (Andorra)	184.5 km (115 mi)		High mountain stage	 Tom Dumoulin (NED)
	11 July	Andorra			Rest day
10	12 July	Escaldes-Engordany (Andorra) to Revel	197 km (122 mi)		Medium mountain stage	 Michael Matthews (AUS)
11	13 July	Carcassonne to Montpellier	162.5 km (101 mi)		Flat stage	 Peter Sagan (SVK)
12	14 July	Montpellier to Chalet Reynard (Mont Ventoux) ^[n 1]	178 km (111 mi)		High mountain stage	 Thomas De Gendt (BEL)
13	15 July	Bourg-Saint-Andéol to La Caverne du Pont-d'Arc	37.5 km (23 mi)		Individual time trial	 Tom Dumoulin (NED)
14	16 July	Montélimar to Villars-les-Dombes (Parc des Oiseaux)	208.5 km (130 mi)		Flat stage	 Mark Cavendish (GBR)
15	17 July	Bourg-en-Bresse to Culoz	160 km (99 mi)		High mountain stage	 Jarlinson Pantano (COL)
16	18 July	Moirans-en-Montagne to Bern (Switzerland)	209 km (130 mi)		Flat stage	 Peter Sagan (SVK)
	19 July	Bern (Switzerland)			Rest day
17	20 July	Bern (Switzerland) to Finhaut-Émosson (Switzerland)	184.5 km (115 mi)		High mountain stage	 Ilnur Zakarin (RUS)
18	21 July	Sallanches to Megève	17 km (11 mi)		Mountain time trial	 Chris Froome (GBR)
19	22 July	Albertville to Saint Gervais-les-Bains	146 km (91 mi)		High mountain stage	 Romain Bardet (FRA)
20	23 July	Megève to Morzine	146.5 km (91 mi)		High mountain stage	 Ion Izagirre (ESP)
21	24 July	Chantilly to Paris (Champs-Élysées)	113 km (70 mi)		Flat stage	 André Greipel (GER)
		Total	3,529 km (2,193 mi) ^[35]

Race overview

The first stage's bunch sprint finish was won by Mark Cavendish, who gained the race leader's yellow jersey; he also claimed the green jersey as the leader of the points classification, with Paul Voss (You have called {{Contentious topics}}). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) taking the polka dot jersey as the leader of the mountains classification. Alberto Contador crashed and lost 55 seconds.^[36] Peter Sagan took victory in stage two with an uphill sprint in Cherbourg, putting him in the yellow and green jerseys. Jasper Stuyven of You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the

The peloton passing through the town of Panazol on the fourth stage, which ended with a bunch sprint won by Marcel Kittel of You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users * `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. * `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. * `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. * `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices * `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. * `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices * `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page message box \(tmbox\), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. led the mountains classification. General classification rivals Contador and Richie Porte both lost time.^[37] The bunch sprint in Angers was won by Cavendish in a photo finish with André Greipel. Cavendish's win was his 28th in the Tour and drew him level with Bernard Hinault at second on the all-time list; Cavendish also took the green jersey.^[38] Another photo finish followed in the next stage with Marcel Kittel beating You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page message box \(tmbox\), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.'s Bryan Coquard. Sagan claimed back the green and Thomas De Gendt (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. * `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. * If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous * `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) the polka dot.^[39] Greg Van Avermaet of You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. won the fifth stage after he was the only rider to survive from an early breakaway. He took the lead of the general classification by over five minutes.^[40] Stage six was won by Cavendish, who beat Kittel and claimed the green jersey.^[41]

In stage seven, the first in the Pyrenees, Steve Cummings (You have called {{Contentious topics}}). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) soloed over the final climb, the Col d'Aspin, and descended into the finish at Lac de Payolle where he took victory. Van Avermaet came fifth and extended his lead. You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.'s Adam Yates attacked the chasing group and as he passed underneath the one kilometer to go arch it collapsed on top of, and injured, him.^[42] In the following stage Chris Froome attacked the front of the race of overall favourites as they passed the summit of the Col de Peyresourde, descending to the finish at in Bagneres de Luchon to take a solo victory by thirteen seconds. This put him in the yellow jersey, sixteen seconds ahead of Yates in second, with Rafał Majka (You have called {{Contentious topics}}). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) taking the polka dot.^[43] In the Tour's queen stage,^[44] the ninth, Tom Dumoulin of You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.

- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. broke clear of the large breakaway to claim the win at the Andorra-Arcalis. Thibaut Pinot took the lead of the mountains classification.^[45] Contador abandoned the race, citing a fever which had developed overnight.^[46] The next day was the first rest day of the Tour.^[27] Another breakaway succeeded in stage ten, with You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. using their advantage of having three riders in the small group to give Michael Matthews the win. Sagan, who came second, took the lead in the points classification.^[47]

On stage eleven, Sagan forced a move in the final 12 km (7.5 mi) with his teammate Maciej Bodnar, who were followed by Froome and his teammate Geraint Thomas. They opened up a lead of over twenty seconds and held it to six seconds at the finish, where Sagan beat Froome in a sprint.^[48] A successful breakaway saw De Gendt win stage twelve at the finish at Chalet Reynard, which was changed from the intended summit finish at Mont Ventoux, 6 km (3.7 mi) later, due to dangerous winds. In the chasing group of overall favourites, a leading group of Porte, Froome and Bauke Mollema (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

Chris Froome (yellow jersey) and Peter Sagan (green jersey), along with one teammate each, formed a breakaway in the final kilometers of stage eleven, with Sagan victorious and Froome gaining time on his rivals.

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) crashed into the back of a camera motorbike that was stopped by the encroaching spectators. Froome's bike was unrideable and he was forced to run until he was given a bike from a neutral service car; although it did not fit him he managed to ride until he received his team bike. The race jury gave Froome and Porte the same time as stage winner Mollema,^{[49][50]} who later criticised the jury's decision, suggesting that they would have acted differently if he was the one to go down.^[51] De Gendt took the lead of the mountains classification.^[49] Stage thirteen's 37.5 km (23.3 mi) individual time trial was won by Dumoulin, 1:03 ahead of Froome, who extended his lead over his nearest rival (Mollema) to one minute and forty-seven seconds.^[52] Cavendish won his fourth stage the next day with a bunch sprint at the Parc des Oiseaux.^[53]

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page message box (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. rider Jarlinson Pantano won stage fifteen after a sprint with fellow surviving breakaway rider Majka.^[54] In next stage, Sagan won his third stage from a select group of sprinters that had traversed a cobbled climb 6 km (3.7 mi) from the finish in Bern.^[55] The next day was the second rest day.^[27] In stage seventeen, as the race entered the Alps, You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page message box (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page message box (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.'s Ilnur Zakarin attacked a breakaway and held off a chasing Pantano to take the win at the summit finish by the Émosson Dam.^[56] In the following stage's 17 km (10.6 mi) mountain time trial Froome beat second-placed Dumoulin by 21 seconds and extended his lead to three minutes and 52 seconds overall, with Mollema keeping second.^[57] In stage nineteen, the general classification leaders descended the wet roads of the unclassified penultimate climb at the head of the race, with only Costa surviving from the breakaway. Romain Bardet attacked after a series of crashes that included Froome and Mollema. Froome took Thomas's bike and got back to the group, but Mollema was left isolated and finished over four minutes behind the stage winner Bardet, who had passed Costa in the final 7 km (4.3 mi) and soloed to the finish at the Le Bettex ski station. Froome's lead was increased to 4' 11", with Bardet moving up from fifth to second.^[58] In stage twenty Jon Izaguirre (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.) took the win in Morzine, attacking on the wet descent from a three rider group that led over the final climb of Col de Joux Plane.^[59]

The final stage in Paris was won by Greipel, his second consecutive Champs-Élysées stage win.^[8] Froome finished the race to claim his third Tour de France, becoming the first man since Miguel Indurain in 1995 Tour to officially defend his title.^[60] He beat second-placed Bardet by four minutes and five seconds, with Nairo Quintana third, a further sixteen seconds down. Sagan won the points classification with a total of 470, 242 ahead of Greipel in second. Majka won the mountains classification with De Gendt and Pantano second and third respectively. The best young rider was Yates, two minutes and sixteen seconds ahead of second-placed Louis Meintjes (You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`). You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.). You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. finished as the winners of the team classification, over eight minutes ahead of second-placed You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users * `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. * `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. * `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. * `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices * `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. * `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices * `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. * `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia..^[35]

that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
* If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.
Miscellaneous
* {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.'s André Greipel (left) celebrates winning the Tour's final stage on the Champs-Élysées in Paris

Classification leadership

There were four main individual classifications contested in the 2016 Tour de France, as well as a team competition. The most important was the general classification, which was calculated by adding each rider's finishing times on each stage.^[61] Time bonuses (time subtracted) were awarded at the end of every stage apart from the two individual time trials. The first three riders got 10, 6 and 4 seconds, respectively.^[61] If a crash had happened within the final 3 km (1.9 mi) of a stage, not including time trials and summit finishes, the riders involved would have received the same time as the group they were in when the crash occurred.^[62] The rider with the lowest cumulative time was the winner of the general classification and was considered the overall winner of the Tour.^[61] The rider leading the classification wore a yellow jersey.^[63]

The second classification was the points classification. Riders received points for finishing among the highest placed in a stage finish, or in intermediate sprints during the stage. The points available for each stage finish were determined by the stage's type.^[31] The leader was identified by a green jersey.^[63]

Points classification points for the top 15 positions by type^[31]

Type	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
 Flat stage	50	30	20	18	16	14	12	10	8	7	6	5	4	3	2
 Medium mountain stage	30	25	22	19	17	15	13	11	9
 High mountain stage	20	17	15	13	11	10	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1
 Individual time trial
 Intermediate sprint

The third classification was the mountains classification. Points were awarded to the riders that reached the summit of the most difficult climbs first. The climbs were categorised as fourth-, third-, second- or first-category and hors catégorie, with the more difficult climbs rated lower.^[31] Double points were awarded on the summit finishes on stages 9, 12, 17 and 19.^[31] The leader wore a white jersey with red polka dots.^[63]

The final individual classification was the young rider classification. This was calculated the same way as the general classification, but the classification was restricted to riders who were born on or after 1 January 1991.^[61] The leader wore a white jersey.^[63]

The final classification was a team classification. This was calculated using the finishing times of the best three riders per team on each stage; the leading team was the team with the lowest cumulative time. The number of stage victories and placings per team determined the outcome of a tie.^[61] The riders in the team that lead this classification were identified with yellow number bibs on the back of their jerseys and yellow helmets.^[63]

In addition, there was a combativity award given after each stage to the rider considered, by a jury, to have "made the greatest effort and who demonstrated the best qualities of sportsmanship".^[61] No combativity awards were given for the time trials and the final stage.^[64] The winner wore a red number bib the following stage.^[61] At the conclusion of the Tour, Peter Sagan won the overall super-combativity award,^[35] again, decided by a jury.^[61]

A total of €2,295,850 was awarded in cash prizes in the race.^[64] The overall winner of the general classification received €500,000, with the second and third placed riders getting €200,000 and €100,000 respectively. All finishers of the race were awarded with money.^[65] The holders of the classifications benefited on each stage they led; the final winners of the points and mountains were given €25,000, while the best young rider and most combative rider got €20,000.^[66] The team classification winners were given €50,000.^[67] €11,000 was given to the winners of each stage of the race, with smaller amounts given to places 2–20.^[65] There were also three special awards each with a prize of €5000. The Souvenir Jacques Goddet, given to the first rider to pass Goddet's memorial at the summit of the Col du Tourmalet on stage eight, the Souvenir Henri Desgrange, given to first rider to pass the summit of the highest climb in the Tour, the Port d'Envalira on stage ten, and the Prix Bernard Hinault, given to the rider with fastest ascent of the Côte de Domancy on stage eighteen.^[64] Thibaut Pinot won the Jacques Goddet, Rui Costa won the Henri Desgrange and Richie Porte won the Bernard Hinault.^{[68][69][70]}

Stage	Winner	General classification 	Points classification 	Mountains classification 	Young rider classification 	Team classification 	Combativity award
1	Mark Cavendish	Mark Cavendish	Mark Cavendish	Paul Voss	Edward Theuns	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious	Anthony Delaplace

					topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
2	Peter Sagan	Peter Sagan	Peter Sagan	Jasper Stuyven	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or	Jasper Stuyven draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
3	Mark Cavendish		Mark Cavendish			Thomas Voeckler
4	Marcel Kittel		Peter Sagan			Oliver Naesen

- `{{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}})` is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}})` is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template

					standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
5	Greg Van Avermaet	Greg Van Avermaet		Thomas De Gendt	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced	Thomas De Gendt Yukiya Arashiro by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
6	Mark Cavendish		Mark Cavendish

7	Steve Cummings			Adam Yates	Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to	Vincenzo Nibali
8	Chris Froome	Chris Froome	Rafał Majka			Thibaut Pinot

					disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.
					Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
9	Tom Dumoulin		Thibaut Pinot		You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

10	Michael Matthews	Peter Sagan			You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:
11	Peter Sagan				Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
12	Thomas De Gendt		Thomas De Gendt		Peter Sagan Arthur Vichot Thomas De Gendt

13	Tom Dumoulin					no award
14	Mark Cavendish					Jérémy Roy
15	Jarlinson Pantano		Rafał Majka		You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk	Rafał Majka system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

[illegible]

20	Jon Izagirre					Jarlinson Pantano
21	André Greipel				Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.	no award
Final	Chris Froome	Peter Sagan	Adam Yates		You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

- In stage two, Marcel Kittel, who was second in the points classification, wore the green jersey, because first placed Mark Cavendish wore the yellow jersey as leader of the general classification.^[73]
- In stages three and five, Mark Cavendish, who was second in the points classification, wore the green jersey, because first placed Peter Sagan wore the yellow jersey as leader of the general classification.^{[74][75]}

Final standings

Legend
	Denotes the winner of the general classification ^[63]		Denotes the winner of the mountains classification ^[63]
	Denotes the winner of the points classification ^[63]		Denotes the winner of the young rider classification ^[63]
	Denotes the winner of the team classification ^[63]		Denotes the winner of the combativity award ^[63]

General classification

Final general classification (1–10)^[35]

Rank	Rider	Team	Time
1	 Chris Froome (GBR) 	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.	89h 04' 48"

		▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
2	 Romain Bardet (FRA)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom	+ 4' 05" message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

3	 Nairo Quintana (COL) 	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the	+ 4' 21" contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an <code>editnotice</code>. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an <code>editnotice</code>. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a <code>talk page messagebox (tmbox)</code>, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a <code>talk page messagebox (tmbox)</code>. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the <code>arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard</code>, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

4	 Adam Yates (GBR) 	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.	+ 4' 42"

		Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
5	 Richie Porte (AUS)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one	+ 5' 17"

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
6	 Alejandro Valverde (ESP) 	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics	+ 6' 16" restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

7	 Joaquim Rodríguez (E.S.P.)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices	+ 6' 58"

		▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (<code>tmbox</code>), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (<code>tmbox</code>). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (<code>AE</code>) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.
8	 Louis Meintjes (RSA)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (<code>tmbox</code>), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such	+ 6' 58" notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

9	 Dan Martin (IRL)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page	+ 7' 04" messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

10	 Roman Kreuziger (CZE)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will	+ 7' 11"

investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

Final general classification (11–174) ^[35]
Rank	Rider	Team	Time
11	 Bauke Mollema (NED)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 13' 13"

12	 Sergio Henao (COL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 18' 51"
13	 Fabio Aru (ITA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 19' 20"

14  Sébastien Reichenbach (SUI)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 24' 59"

15  Geraint Thomas (GBR)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 28' 31"

16

 Pierre Rolland (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the

contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;"| + 30' 42"

17	 Mikel Nieve (ESP)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
----	---	--

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 38' 30"

18

 Stef Clement (NED)

You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 38' 57"
19	 Jarlinson Pantano (COL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 38' 59"

20

 Alexis Vuillermoz (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (<code>tmbox</code>), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (<code>tmbox</code>). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (<code>AE</code>) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 42' 28"
21	 Emanuel Buchmann (GER)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (<code>tmbox</code>), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 47' 40"

22	 Damiano Caruso (ITA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 48' 23"
23	 Warren Barguil (ERA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 52 ' 14 "

24	 Haimar Zubeldia (ESP)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 53' 06"
25	 Ilnur Zakarin (RUS)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 56' 33"

26	 Tanel Kangert (EST)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 03' 59"
27	 Rafał Majka (POL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 1h 04' 25"

28  Wout Poels (NED)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 1h 06' 57"

29  Tejay van Garderen (USA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. |} + 1h 12' 06"

30

 Vincenzo Nibali (ITA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 1h 19' 59"

31

Daniel Moreno (ESP)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 1h 21' 00"

32

 Wilco Kelderman (NED)

You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 1h 24' 38"
33	 Domenico Pozzovivo (ITA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 1h 25' 14"

34  Fränk Schleck (LUX)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 27' 39"
35	 Mikel Landa (ESP)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 32' 19"

36	 Steve Morabito (SUI)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 1h 38' 30"
37	 Diego Rosa (ITA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 46' 36"

38	 Daryl Impey (RSA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 50' 51"
39	Bartosz Huzarski (POL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 55' 28"

40	 Thomas De Gendt (BEL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 1h 58' 45"
41	 Julian Alaphilippe (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 00' 09"

42  Serge Pauwels (BEL)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 00' 38"

43  Sylvain Chavanel (ERA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. |} + 2h 02' 53"

44

 Greg Van Avermaet (BEL)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 06' 13"

45

Amaël Moinard (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 2h 06' 36"

46

 Peter Stetina (USA)

You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.

- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. + 2h 07' 22"

47

 Ion Izagirre (ESP)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. + 2h 09' 49"

48

 Luis León Sánchez (ESP)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a <code>talk page messagebox (tmbox)</code>, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}</code> is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a <code>talk page messagebox (tmbox)</code>. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the <code>arbitration enforcement (AE)</code> noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. <code>{{AE sanction}}</code> is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/list}}</code> and <code>{{Contentious topics/table}}</code> show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. + 2h 10' 25"
49	 Rui Costa (PQR)	You have called <code>{{Contentious topics}}</code>. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ <code>{{alert/first}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ <code>{{alert}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert}}</code>) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ <code>{{alert/DS}}</code> (<code>{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}</code>) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/aware}}</code> is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}</code> is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ <code>{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}</code> is used to provide additional communication, using a <code>talk page messagebox (tmbox)</code>, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 2h 11' 42"

50	 Jan Bakelants (BEL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 13' 47"
51	 Kristijan Đurasek (CRO)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 2h 15' 16"

52	 Jakob Fuglsang (DEN)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 17' 16"
53	 George Bennett (NZL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 18' 05"

54	 Jan Polanc (SLO)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" 2h 18' 24"
55	 Luis Ángel Maté (ESP)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 21' 17"

56  Georg Preidler (A.U.T.)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 25' 45"

57

 Mikaël Cherel (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 2h 27' 45"

58  Robert Kišerlovski (CRO)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 2h 28' 06"

59

Eduardo Sepúlveda

(ARG)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. |} + 2h 28' 27"

60

 Fabrice Jeandesboz (ERA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 39' 17"
61	 Ben Gastauer (LUX)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 41' 05"

62

 Alexey Lutsenko (KAZ)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 41' 52"
63	 Anthony Roux (ERA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 44' 01"
65	 Patrick Konrad (AUT)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 2h 46' 32"

66	 Simon Geschke (GER)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 47' 32"
67	 Alberto Losada (ESP)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 48' 02"

68	 Cyril Gautier (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 2h 49' 49"
69	 Winner Anacona (COL) 	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 50' 23"

70  Brice Feillu (E.R.A.)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 50' 49"

71

 Tony Gallopin (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 2h 51' 23"

72

 Rubén Plaza (ESP)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 53' 10"

73

Laurens ten Dam (NED)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 2h 53' 22"

74

 Paolo Tiralongo (ITA)

You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 2h 58' 12"
75	 Jérôme Coppel (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 2h 58' 48"

76

 Michael Schär (SUI)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 00' 54"
77	 Michael Valgren (DEN)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 01' 22"

78	 Arthur Vichot (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 02' 10"
79	Thomas Voeckler (ERA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 02' 35"

80	 Nelson Oliveira (POR) 	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 04' 53"
81	 Romain Sicard (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 09' 11"

82	 Tom-Jelte Slagter (NED)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 09' 19"
83	 Oliver Naesen (BEL)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 11' 28"

84  Chris Anker Sørensen (DEN)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 12' 52"

85  Daniel Teklehaimanot (ERI)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 14' 07"

86

 Andriy Hrivko (UKR)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 14' 31"

87	 Arnold Jeannesson (FRA)
----	--

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 18' 14"

88

 Jan Bárta (CZE)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 19' 44"
89	 Marcus Burghardt (GER)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 20' 22"

90

 Anthony Delaplace (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 21' 09"
91	 Dylan van Baarle (NED)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 23' 15"

92	 Tsgabu Grmay (ETH)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 23' 17"
93	 Pierre-Luc Périchon (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 24' 36"

94	 Bert-Jan Lindeman (NED)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 27' 15"
96	 Jérémy Roy (FRA)
97	 Reto Hollenstein (SUI)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 28' 33"

98

 Paul Martens (GER)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 33' 29"

99  Jasper Stuyven ^(BEL)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 33' 29"

100

 Adam Hansen (AUS)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 34' 26"

101

 Paul Voss (GER)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 36' 25"

102

 Luka Pibernik (SLO)

You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 38' 17"
103	 Vasil Kiryienka (BLR)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 38' 41"

104

 Sep Vanmarcke (BEL)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 40' 02"
105	 Florian Vachon (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 40' 09"

106	 Nicolas Edet (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 42' 42"
107	 Antoine Duchesne (CAN)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 44' 54"

108	 Imanol Erviti (ESP) 	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 46' 42"
109	 Edvald Boasson Hagen (NOR)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 47' 29"

110	 Michael Matthews (AUS)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" 3h 47' 40"
111	 Timo Roosen (NED)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 50' 43"

112

 Luke Durbridge (AUS)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 51' 55"

113

 Bryan Coquard (ERA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 51' 57"

114

 Julien Vermote (BEL)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 52' 50"

115

 Reinardt Janse van Rensburg (RSA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 3h 56' 30"

116

● Yukiya
Arashiro (JPN)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 57' 06"
117	 Brent Bookwalter (USA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 3h 57' 49"

118

Petr Vakoč (CZE)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox \(tmbox\). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia.

119

 Christopher Juul-Jensen (DEN)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbx), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such

		notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 58' 10"
120	 Markel Irizar (ESP)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 3h 58' 17"
121	 Jérôme Cousin (FRA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 3h 58' 36"

122	 Roy Curvers (NED)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 4h 03' 16"
123	 Grégory Rast (سٰٰٰٰ)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 4h 03' 44"

124	 Lawson Craddock (USA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 4h 03' 44"
125	 Natnael Berhane (ERI)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 4h 04' 27"

126

 Jürgen Roelandts (BEL)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.

- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 4h 05' 22"

127

 William Bonnet (FRA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom

message that conveys the contentious topic designation.

- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement \(AE\) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. || style="text-align:right;" | + 4h 06' 18"

128

 Cesare Benedetti (ITA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an `editnotice`. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an `editnotice`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`, to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a `talk page messagebox (tmbox)`. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the `arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard`, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} | style="text-align:right;" | + 4h 06' 23"

129

Ángel Vicioso (ESP)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. |} style="text-align:right;" | + 4h 08' 07"

130

 Samuel Dumoulin (ERA)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one

		below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 4h 08' 08"
131	 Alex Howes (USA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions

using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

- `{{Contentious topics/talk notice}}` is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}}` is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.
- If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. `{{AE sanction}}` is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned.

Miscellaneous

- `{{Contentious topics/list}}` and `{{Contentious topics/table}}` show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. | + 4h 08' 22"

132

 Michael Albasini (SUI)

You have called `{{Contentious topics}}`. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead:

Alerting users

- `{{alert/first}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/first}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification.
- `{{alert}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert}}`) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation.
- `{{alert/DS}}` (`{{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}`) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic.
- `{{Contentious topics/aware}}` is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic.

Editnotices

- `{{Contentious topics/editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page.
- `{{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}}` is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page.

Talk page notices

		▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }}}} style="text-align:right;" + 4h 09' 04"
133	 André Greipel (GER)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 4h 09' 07"

134	 Ramūnas Navardauskas (LIT)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox

		(tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 4h 09' 40"
135	 Mathew Hayman (AUS)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. }} style="text-align:right;" + 4h 10' 33"

136	 Matteo Bono (ITA)	You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. - If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous

		▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 4h 12' 53"
137		You have called {{Contentious topics}}. You probably meant to call one of these templates instead: Alerting users ▪ {{alert/first}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/first}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the contentious topics system if they have never received such an alert before. In this case, this template must be used for the notification. ▪ {{alert}} ({{Contentious topics/alert}}) is used, on a user's talk page, to "alert", or draw a user's attention, to the fact that a specific topic is a contentious topic. It may only be used if the user has previously received any contentious topic alert, and it can be replaced by a custom message that conveys the contentious topic designation. ▪ {{alert/DS}} ({{Contentious topics/alert/DS}}) is used to inform editors that the old "discretionary sanctions" system has been replaced by the contentious topics system, and that a specific topic is a contentious topic. ▪ {{Contentious topics/aware}} is used to register oneself as already aware that a specific topic is a contentious topic. Editnotices ▪ {{Contentious topics/editnotice}} is used to inform editors that a page is covered by the contentious topics system using an editnotice. Use the one below if the page has restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction editnotice}} is used to inform editors that the page they are editing is subject to contentious topics restrictions using an editnotice. Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. Talk page notices ▪ {{Contentious topics/talk notice}} is used to provide additional communication, using a talk page messagebox (tmbox), to editors that they are editing a page that is covered by the contentious topics system. The template standardises the format and wording of such notices. Use the below if there are restrictions placed on the page. ▪ {{Contentious topics/page restriction talk notice}} is used to inform editors that page restrictions are active on the page using a talk page messagebox (tmbox). Use the above if there are no restrictions placed on the page. ▪ If a user who has been alerted goes on to disruptively edit the affected topic area, they can be reported to the arbitration enforcement (AE) noticeboard, where an administrator will investigate their conduct and issue a sanction if appropriate. {{AE sanction}} is used by administrators to inform a user that they have been sanctioned. Miscellaneous ▪ {{Contentious topics/list}} and {{Contentious topics/table}} show which topics are currently designated as contentious topics. They are used by a number of templates and pages on Wikipedia. style="text-align:right;" + 4h 13' 49"

138	 Maarten Wynants (BEL)	Template:Ct	+ 4h 16' 53"
139	 Ilio Keisse (BEL)	Template:Ct	+ 4h 16' 57"
140	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 17' 03"
141	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 17' 32"
142	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 18' 15"
143	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 21' 41"
144	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 22' 02"
145	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 22' 05"
146	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 23' 01"
147	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 23' 42"
148	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 24' 24"
149	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 24' 24"
150	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 26' 39"
151	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 27' 49"
152	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 28' 01"
153	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 28' 11"
154	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 28' 33"
155	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 29' 22"
156	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 29' 38"
157	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 29' 47"
158	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 30' 02"
159	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 30'

			30"
160	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 30' 34"
161	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 31' 34"
162	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 31' 40"
163	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 32' 09"
164	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 32' 25"
165	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 34' 45"
166	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 35' 06"
167	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 38' 27"
168	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 39' 37"
169	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 40' 24"
170	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 50' 14"
171	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 51' 07"
172	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 4h 55' 13"
173	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 5h 01' 18"
174	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 5h 17' 14"

Points classification

Final points classification (1–10)^[35]

Rank	Rider	Team	Points
1	Template:Flagathlete  	Template:Ct	470
2	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	228
3	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	199
4	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	178
5	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	172
6	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	156
7	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	154
8	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	136
9	Template:Flagathlete 	Template:Ct	131
10	Template:Flagathlete 	Template:Ct	120

Mountains classification

Final mountains classification (1–10)^[35]

Rank	Rider	Team	Points
1	Template:Flagathlete 	Template:Ct	209
2	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	130
3	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	121
4	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	84
5	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	76
6	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	62
7	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	53
8	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	36
9	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	36
10	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	33

Young rider classification

Final young rider classification (1–10)^[35]

Rank	Rider	Team	Time
1	Template:Flagathlete 	Template:Ct	Template:Nowrap
2	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 2' 16"
3	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 42' 58"
4	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 47' 32"
5	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 1h 19' 56"
6	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 1h 55' 27"
7	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 2h 13' 42"
8	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 2h 23' 45"
9	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 2h 37' 10"
10	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	+ 2h 41' 50"

Team classification

Final team classification (1–10)^[35]

Rank	Team	Time
1	Template:Ct 	267h 20' 45"
2	Template:Ct	+ 8' 14"
3	Template:Ct	+ 48' 11"
4	Template:Ct	+ 56' 50"
5	Template:Ct	+ 1h 16' 58"
6	Template:Ct	+ 1h 52' 23"
7	Template:Ct	+ 2h 00' 16"
8	Template:Ct	+ 2h 10' 03"
9	Template:Ct	+ 2h 29' 13"
10	Template:Ct	+ 2h 35' 18"

UCI rankings

Riders from the WorldTeams competing individually, as well as for their teams and nations, for points that contributed towards the World Tour rankings.Template:Sfn Riders from both the WorldTeams and Professional Continental teams also competed individually and for their nations for points that contributed towards the new UCI World Ranking, which included all UCI road races.Template:Sfn^[78] Points were awarded to the top twenty (World Tour) and sixty finishers (World Ranking) in the general classification and to the top five finishers in each stage.Template:Sfn The points accrued by Chris Froome moved him up to third in the World Tour and second in the World Ranking. Peter Sagan held the lead of both rankings. Template:Ct's strong showing put them in the lead of the World Tour team ranking, replacing Template:Ct. Spain and France remained the leaders of the WorldTour and World Ranking nation rankings, respectively.^[80]

UCI World Tour individual ranking on 24 July 2016 (1–10)^[81]^[82]

Rank	Template:Abbr	Name	Team	Points
1	1	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	445
2	4	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	407
3	21	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	396
4	3	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	394
5	2	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	314
6	20	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	314
7	9	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	307
8	11	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	280
9	5	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	241
10	6	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	240

Template:Column

UCI World Ranking individual ranking on 24 July 2016 (1–10)^[83]^[84]

Rank	Template:Abbr	Name	Team	Points
1	1	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	3233
2	30	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	2569
3	2	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	2269
4	4	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	2250.25
5	18	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	2017
6	11	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	1863
7	3	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	1652
8	10	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	1628
9	7	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	1626
10	9	Template:Flagathlete	Template:Ct	1564

Template:Columns-end

See also

Template:Portal

- 2016 in men's road cycling
- 2016 in sports
- 2016 La Course by Le Tour de France

Notes

Template:Reflist

References

Template:Reflist

Bibliography

- Template:Cite book

- Template:Cite book

External links

Template:Commons category

- Template:Webarchive

Template:Cycling stage recaps Template:Tour de France Template:2016 UCI World Tour

Retrieved from "https://en.wikipedia.org/w/index.php?title=2016_Tour_de_France&oldid=892950146"